Voracious vehicles

A serious outbreak of auto-cannibalism broke out in Haliburton County last week. Vehicles of all size and description could be seen with their mouths yawning open as they drained the juice from the healthy members of the society. The humans in charge were seemingly unable to stop this strange phenomenon from happening. Scholars say rituals such as the cannibalistic rite seen to the left have happened at numerous occasions in the history of vehicles. They speculate that extremely cold weather seems to trigger a mechanism that causes the destructive tendancies. One scientist has suggested that the vehicles are not following any particular cultural precept but rather that they simply get a charge out of doing it.

Curlers shoot for January 19 opener

Minden curlers can look forward to stepping out on their new rink in less than two week's time.

That prediction came Tuesday afternoon from the chairman of the Building Committee, Godfrey Saunders.

The club had hoped to be ready for the season by January 5 but a series of construction delays forced the postponment of the start. In the meantime, members have been contributing time and talent to ensure that at least part of the 1980-81 season is not lost. On Friday and Sunday of this past week volunteers from the club have been helping with interior construction. "I am surprised and pleased with the turnout," Saunders commented. "On Sunday we had 26 here to lend a hand." (Photographs of the volunteers in action can be found on page five of this week's issue of The Times.)

One of the reasons for the delay has been the installation of the ice making equipment. It was scheduled to be moved into place from the old building some two weeks ago. Workmen were just placing the compressor on its pad Tuesday afternoon. It should be operational shortly, and even if it isn't, club members hope to start making natural ice this weekend in anticipation of the January 19 target date.

Other problems have occurred with material not arriving on time and other delays.

"While we will be curling in the building soon, the interior will be far from finished," Saunders admitted. He said that work will probably continue on into the summer before the new structure could be called "complete".

Those interested in helping at the curling club, and there are a number or work bees tentatively planned for this weekend, should contact Godfrey who can be found most days at the rink or in the evening at 286-2837.

Curlers as well can start to dust off their brooms and get ready for an abbreviated, but none the less enthusiastic season in the new facility. For more information about playing this year contact Penny Obee at 286-1242.

Proving that six hands and three heads are better than one, three curling club volunteers demonstrate the group method of hanging wallboard. Names of those participating in this tangle have been declared top secret.

Merchant seeks help in theft

Police are investigating a theft from the Minden Stedman's Store and the owner of the business, Jerry Pillsworth, has appealed to the public for help in the matter.

The incident involves the theft of a vending machine from the front of the store on the night of January 2. The machine was used to sell assorted children's novelties in small plastic containers.

The store owner reports that the machine and stand were quite heavy with a particularly heavy base. Speculation is that more than one person was involved in the theft and that a vehicle was used at the scene to remove the weighty machine.

Also taken at the same time was a large aluminum snow scoop.

Pillsworth has appealed to anyone knowing anything of the incident to contact him at 286-1075 or call the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police at 286-1431.

Drugs attract thieves again

Drugs again appear to be the lure for intruders in Haliburton Village as the Good Medical Centre was broken into on the night of December 27-28.

The building was entered through a basement window. A second window in a door in the interior of the building was also broken during the robbery.

A quantity of drugs was taken from the dispensing area of the office. Police estimate the value of the stolen material at $30. Damage to the building was estimated at $250.

The break-in was discovered by police at 2:20 a.m. as they conducted a routine check of businesses in the community.

Constable Bill Clendenning is in charge of the investigation.

Cottages rifled

Two cottages in the Stormy Lake area were broken into December 22 and three youths have been charged in the incidents.

Fund started for police vests

John Francis, a Minden area businessman and Deputy Reeve of Snowdon Township has started a fund to purchase protective vests for the members of the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police. Francis made an initial contribution of $280 to the fund. The amount is approximately the cost of a specially designed vest being considered by police officers in Ontario.

The contribution was in reaction to the tragic killing of an OPP constable and the serious wounding of another in the Muskoka area and a number of other shootings involving police in the last week.

"The police are out there protecting us," Francis commented, "I think the least we can do is offer them a little protection in return."

Francis challenged other individuals, groups or businesses in the community to add to the fund in an effort to generate enough money to purchase the protective vests for the members of the local detachment.

A special account has been established at the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce for the purpose of receiving the donations. Anyone interested in contributing to the fund can do so by making a deposit to the Police Vest account. (The publisher of this newspaper, Jack Brezina, and John Francis, have agreed to act as cosigners for the special account.)

Police reaction

Sergeant Bill Bailey of the Minden detachment welcomed the interest of the public in this matter. He noted that funds have been started in other communities along similar lines. The sergeant felt sure the men would wear the protective equipment if it was available.

However, the sergeant expressed reservations about the use of vests. "This protective gear is really not the answer," the sergeant commented. He said two man patrols would have a greater impact on reducing the number of incidents of this nature. "At the moment however, we just don't have the funds to support two man patrol cars," he said.

The sergeant also found the vests objectionable from a morale point of view. "I find it repugnant that police have to take these measures for their own protection," Bailey commented. "It is a sad comment on the society." He suggested that the morale of the officers and their families would drop with the constables donning the protective gear each day. The sergeant described the situation as demoralizing.

He also noted the vests were cumbersome and would probably prove to be hot in the summer.

"I doubt whether the situation which took place in Muskoka would have happened if there had been two men in the car," the sergeant commented. He

FROM THE CHAMBER

By Bob Stinson

Haliburton Highlands
the heart of getaway country

The Chamber has just published the first of what is to become a regular quarterly newsletter. All members should at this point in time have their copy and it contains, among other things your "1981" date tag for your membership plaque. If by chance anyone was missed please call the office and we will rectify this.

You would of course be missed if you are not a member of the Chamber. Someone said the other day that they would love to belong to the Chamber of Commerce but that nobody had asked them. We certainly attempt to ask everyone who we feel would or should be interested, but if we haven't asked you please don't wait to see if we do. Phone us, write us, or just drop into the Chamber office on the by-pass at Minden. We will be most pleased to explain the membership structure to you. Anyone interested in the economic future here in this county qualifies as a member.

The last page of our newsletter contains a survey form that requests input from our members. Do you get tired of getting requests to participate in surveys? Everybody does, but stop and think about it for a moment. The day the survey requests stop you can assume that is the day your opinion is no longer important. The only way organizations such as ours can be sure we are doing what most of our members want is to ask and hope that you will take a moment to answer.

Every survey that comes to our office is answered at once. We spend so much time submitting briefs and writing letter to try and have decisions that were made without sufficient input changed that we really appreciate being asked. We hope you do too.

Hockey tournament time

This holiday, along with our many other holiday visitors, the Minden area was invaded by a great number of hockey enthusiasts attending the Rotary International Pee Wee Tournament in Minden. Hot on the heels of that tournament comes Haliburton's Alcide Carpentier Memorial Pee Wee Tournament this week-end with games getting underway at 3:30 Friday afternoon and running right through till Sunday afternoon.

Pee Wees are 11 and 12 years old and have for many years been identified as the most interesting and colourful age group to watch in a tournament. The Quebec Winter Carnival is a bi-product of the huge Pee Wee Tournament that takes place there involving over 100 teams in a ten day period. The Colliseum there seats 12,000 people and is jammed to the rafters throughout the week. With 16 teams competing in A and B categories we operate on a somewhat smaller scale here but the fun and excitement is just as intense.

We do hope you will not only enjoy the tournament but will also take time to make our many visitors for these events feel welcome. For many it will be their first impression of the Highlands. Let's be sure it's a good one.

We treat you royally

Police investigate sixteen accidents during the holidays

Police investigated at least 16 accidents during the holiday season (December 21 to January 2) in the Highlands.

James S. Elphick, 18, of Rexdale, was transferred to Peterborough Civic Hospital December 21 after suffering what was described as major injuries in a mishap in the Wilberforce area.

Elphick was the driver of a snowmobile which collided with a car driven by Wayne R. Crawford, 26, of Oshawa on the crest of a hill. The accident occurred in Harcourt Park. Damage to the snowmobile was estimated at $1000 while the Jeep driven by Crawford sustained $400 damage.

Police have charged Elpick with operating an unregistered snowmobile.

The mishap was investigated by Constable Wim Magee.

Strikes tree

A car, driven by Anita McKinlay, 17 of R.R. 1 Haliburton, skidded off the North Shore Road in Stanhope Township, December 21 and struck a tree. The mishap caused $2000 damage to the vehicle.

The accident was investigated by Constable Bob Wood.

Collide on curve

Two vehicles driven by Toronto area men collided on a curve on County Road 7, December 21. The mishap involved Rein Peter Varik, 24, of Toronto and Randal Stewart, 23, of Markham. Stewart sustained minor injuries in the accident and was taken to Haliburton Hospital for treatment.

Damage to the Varik vehicle was estimated at $2000 while the Stewart truck suffered $3000 damage.

The accident was investigated by Constable Bob Wood.

Roll over

A single car accident on Highway 35 south of Minden resulted in $3000 damage and played a part in a second mishap.

Joan T. Roper, 53, of Toronto, was travelling north on the highway December 24 when she was forced to brake suddenly to yield to a vehicle entering the highway from a private driveway. Roper lost control of her vehicle which entered the west ditch and rolled over.

The accident was investigated by Constable Al Bibby.

The second accident

After the Roper car had left the highway two other vehicles collided as they passed by the scene of the first mishap. Daniel P. Smith, 32, of Burks Falls was travelling south while Robert T. Wilson, 24, of Bramalea was driving north when their two vehicles collided. Damage to the Smith car was estimated at $1200 while the Wilson pick-up truck sustained $350 damage.

Wilson was charged with making an unsafe lane change.

The incident was investigated by Constable Wim Magee.

Collision

A van driven by Myles N. Gartshore, 28, of R.R. 1 Minden was in collision with a pick-up truck driven by John A. Lamb, 73, of Fenelon Falls, December 26. The accident occurred on Highway 35 at Minden.

According to the authorities both vehicles were travelling north. Lamb had intended to turn left, but altered his course and turned to the right and was struck by the Gartshore vehicle.

Damage to the Gartshore van was estimated at $600 while the Lamb truck sustained $2500 damage.

Lamb has been charged with failing to change lanes safely.

Constable Jim Solway was the investigating officer.

Snowmobile mishap

Confusion over which lever was the throttle on a snowmobile sent a 32 year old Downsview resident to Minden Hospital December 26.

Marilyn Youden was seated on a 1981 model snowmobile when she squeezed the throttle by mistake. The machine shot ahead and struck a tree. Damage to the machine was estimated at $2000.

The incident ws investigated by Constable Bob Wood.

Fail to share roadway

A snowmobile driver has been charged with failing to share half the roadway following an accident on the Boundary Road near Kinmount. The accident occurred December 27.

According to police Brian Miles, 22, of Kinmount was travelling east when the pick-up truck he was driving collided with a snowmobile driven by Paul J. Silver, 16, also of Kinmount. Silver was travelling in the opposite direction when the two vehicles met on a curve.

Both vehicles sustained $1200 damage each.

Constable Wim Magee of Minden OPP investigated.

New Rector for Anglican parish

The three point Anglican charge in Minden has a new Rector. Reverend George Elliott was appointed to the post in mid-December and took up residence in the community this past week.

Reverend Elliott comes to Minden from Erin Mills, a section of Mississauga where he served as an assistant and pastor in charge. The posting to Minden is his first position as rector. He was ordained in May 1979.

The new rector commented that he was looking forward to living in Minden. "My wife and I were hoping to find a posting outside of the larger centres," he commented.

In addition to the Minden congregation, Reverend Elliott will be serving the Anglican churches at Maple Lake, and St. Stephen at Boshkung, a summer church.

Reverend Elliott plans to meet with as many of his parishioners as possible in the next little while to become acquainted with the members of the congregation.

Flying Fathers to play here

One of the most entertaining shows on ice will be coming to the Minden and Haliburton arenas next week.

Known as the Flying Fathers, a hockey team made up of priests from the Roman Catholic church will challenge teams from the local recreation leagues.

The Flying Fathers have done for hockey what the Harlem Globetrotters have done for basketball. Combining excellent skating ability, knowledge of the game and a liberal dose of humour the team in black turns the hockey rink into pure bedlam. This is excellent family entertainment with a laugh for everyone.

The Flying Fathers will be playing in Haliburton Tuesday, January 13 at the community centre. Game time is 8 p.m.

The action moves to Minden Wednesday, January 14 at the community centre starting at 7:30 p.m.

The appearance of the Flying Fathers in the county is being sponsored by the Haliburton Community Centres Board and the Minden Recreation Committee.

Included in the evening's entertainment will be a visit from the Flying Nun, the fastest nun on two blades and Suzie the Horse.

Tickets for the Minden appearance will be available in advance from the community centre box office. Advance adult tickets are $2 while at the door they will be $3. A door prize of two tickets to a Toronto Maple leaf hockey game at Maple Leaf Gardens will be drawn at each game. However, only those with advance tickets will be eligible for the door prize.

Children's tickets will be $1 with no advance sales.

Advance tickets are available for $2 at Dollo's IGA.

described a typical two man patrol situation where one officer would get out of a patrol car to carry out an investigation while the second constable, visible to the people involved, remained in the cruiser by the radio ready to respond to any emergency.

The head of the local detachment said the situation in Muskoka demonstrated there was little deterrent in the law today to stop such shootings. He said a return of capital punishment was needed to bring the situation back into line.

A number of members of the Minden detachment, including the sergeant, attended the funeral Monday in Huntsville. Over 1300 police officers from throughout Canada and the United States paid tribute to the slain constable.

Break-ins

The break-ins occurred at the cottage of William T. Hilliard of Scarborough and Cecil A. Kippen of Ingleside.

Access was gained to the Hilliard cottage by breaking the glass in one of the doors and forcing the door open. Damage to the door and frame was estimated at $110. $17 worth of food was removed from the building.

Intruders again forced the door at the Kippen cottage causing $200 damage. Nothing was apparently taken in this incident.

Charged with one count each of break, enter and theft, and break, enter with intent are Daryl McNab, 16, of Gooderham, Robert G. McCausland, 16, of Gooderham, and Steven M. Warburton, 16, of Lindsay. The trio are scheduled to appear in Provincial Court in Minden January 20.

Constable Bob Wood is the investigating officer.

A major contribution

There are many reasons people chose to live in a small community.

For some it is simply a matter of following in their parents' footsteps, finding a comfortable niche in the area of their birth. However, for many others, especially those from larger centres, the small town often offers a sense of neighbourhood and belonging that is missing in the large metropolis.

Smaller communities may lack the attractions of the large cities, but these so called "shortcomings" are more than made up for in an improved quality of life. Certainly, smaller communities have a spirit that is difficult to find and tap in the cities.

One looking for evidence of that fact needed only to stroll into the new curling club this past Sunday afternoon. Members had forsaken a warm easy chair beside a crackling fire for the finger numbing cold of the partially completed building. Here they struggled with insulation batts and sheets of Gyprock as they laboured on the building's interior. The volunteers represented a cross-section of the club's membership, young and old, men and women. They also represented the kind of spirit that thrives in a small community. The kind of spirit and initiative which can be tapped when a good cause is at hand.

Sure, as members of the curling club, these people have a motivation to see this project completed. But at the same time they are making a contribution to the community as the building will be used for more than just curling.

We applaud these volunteers and others who have contributed to this building, the new library, and other projects in the community. These people will be able to enjoy a special feeling of satisfaction once the project is completed. But these people should also be aware that the members of our "small community" appreciate the contribution they are making.

A great place to call home

This country may not be blemish-free, but it certainly has a great deal going for it despite what many doomsayers would have us believe.

For example, there are the many traditional freedoms which we so often take for granted; the lack of war or conflict; the abundance and relative cleanliness of our air, land and water to enjoy. These and many other positive aspects makes this country an enviable place in which to live.

With these thoughts in mind, some year-end statistics released by the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food on world food prices again shows how fortunate we are here, even though there seems to be no end to food price increases. For example:

-Sirloin steak in Ontario averages $3.39 per pound while in Japan the consumer pays $15.55 per pound.

-Porkchops in Ontario are $1.22 per pound while the Swiss pay $4.48 per pound.

-The cost of a dozen eggs, listed by the ministry for Ontario, is 97 cents. In Copenhagen the price is $2.23 for the twelve.

-A loaf of bread here averages 95 cents...in Rome it is $1.89 per loaf.

-A 21 item foodbasket here costs $55.58. The same basket in Tokyo would cost $135.10; in Stockholm $99.18; and in Paris $109.87.

The press release points out that an average worker in Ontario labours for about 28 minutes to make the price of one pound of sirloin steak while the worker in the United Kingdom toils for 90 minutes for the same amount of meat.

We may have our problems, our beefs and complaints. But, in comparison to other parts of the world, Canada is a great place to call home.

STANHOPE NOTES

A.F.Stevenson

The concert presented by the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts Choral Society, Wednesday, December 10, was a most enjoyable programme of excellent singing.

The large audience was thoroughly enchanted by the performance of the forty voice choir and showed their appreciation at every opportunity. The quality of leadership given the choir by Mrs. Marilyn Stouffer was evident as the entire group responded to her fine direction with an outstanding performance.

The county of Haliburton can very well be proud of this excellent choral group, and Stanhope can also be proud since this township is well represented among the singers from various parts of the county who comprise the membership of the choir.

Stanhope firemen held their annual Christmas party Saturday, December 6 and as usual it was an event that was a happy one for the children and for the senior citizens.

The firemen have extended this hospitality to the senior citizens of Stanhope township for several years and the members of the department and their ladies deserve a hearty expression of thanks for their efforts.

Recently we said that the new assessment notices would be out early in December and while this is true of many areas, we are now informed that it will be some time in January before the notices are received in this area.

Council has almost completed the task of appointing the various volunteer members to the several committees which serve the community. There are some new faces which is a welcome sign of people's interest in the activities in the township. We understand that the fire department has also acquired two new members, one of whom has had useful experience as a volunteer fireman elsewhere.

As 1980 joins the past, one gives thought to 1981, perhaps with a glance to the future with its challenges. For some, these are the usual demands of meeting the family needs, or the needs of the future. For others it may be simply a challenge to seek out ways in whcih to be useful. Some people would prefer to be aggressive while others will see the need for some restraint.

We have opted for the latter course and have met criticism which has been favourable and at other times less so. We have been told we are not provocative enough, or have constantly "espoused the virtues of council".

Anyone has the right to dissent, but Stanhope is gradually recovering from the wounds of dissension and needed a period of recovery, free from frivolous criticism.

If commenting occasionally on the well meant efforts of some council members has caused pain for anyone, we do not apologize. The recent election indicated that while there may have been some complaints, there were few serious ones. Otherwise dissatisfaction would have produced more challengers attempting to replace the incumbents.

The issues of the coming year include some which are known to most people in the township and the first to make itself felt will be the new assessment program being put into effect by the Ministry of Revenue for Ontario. How this will affect us can only be known when the information is received by the taxpayers and after all the effects of the program become evident.

For instance, as the assessments are equalized in this county there will likely be a redistribution of county educational levies on the townships and this could mean further easing or increasing of the cost to the taxpayer.

One thing can be taken for granted and that is that not everyone will be pleased with the suggested changes.

The Township of Stanhope has added its support to the Municipality of Haldimand Norfolk regarding their objections to the establishment of the proposed industrial waste disposal site at South Cayuga. It should be remembered that while other concerns do exist in this matter, the issue at this moment is the action of the Ministry of Environment for Ontario in acting without consultation with the municipalities affected.

The existance of the Environmental Assessment Act has given rise to a belief that the concerns of a municipality would be given attention or consideration in matters of this nature. The complete disregard of this Act, and the protection municipalities thought they were assured of, has to be a matter for vigorous objection. As one observes the actions of Provincial Ministries it becomes difficult to avoid the conclusion that the most promising phrases in many of the Provincial acts are worded so as to blind us to what is not said.

We wish all a good and an interesting new year, and may it bring spiritual comfort to all who have been saddened.

outdoors

by Ron Reid of the Federation of Ontario Naturalists

Just over a year ago, this column touched on the issue of hunting within provincial parks, which at the time was occurring in parks across the province without the necessary regulations. The Ministry of Natural Resources, which controls both parks policy and hunting, had promised to resolve this contentious issue by issuing a new policy on wildlife management in Ontario parks. A year later, that policy has yet to appear.

One of the reasons for the Ministry's procrastination became clear this past month, with the release of an opinion poll conducted in February 1980. This Gallup Poll, carried out for the Ministry at the suggestion of the Federation of Ontario Naturalists, confirms the depth of opposition to sport hunting within parks. An incredible 86% of the 1100 adults interviewed were opposed or strongly opposed to the suggestion; only 8% were in favour or strongly in favour. That opposition to park hunting is not restricted to the big cities - the sample in northern Ontario rejected the activity almost as strongly, at 85%, as the residents of Metro Toronto.

The Gallup Poll also explored public attitudes toward mining in parks, which is opposed by 73%. Fortunately, this industrial activity is not now allowed in any Ontario parks.

Logging in parks, which now occurs in Algonquin and Lake Superior, is opposed by 66% with only 17% in favour. The survey results run counter to some commonly held beliefs. For example, the strongest opposition to park logging comes from occupations described as labour, and the strongest level of regional opposition comes not from the cities, but from the north.

Obviously, the "townhouse environmentalists" are not the only group who want parks maintained as sanctuaries.

The results of this survey should prove more than a little embarrassing to the Ministry of Natural Resources, for it demonstrates clearly that the past policies have alll too often catered to vested interests and the personal bias of Ministry staff rather than the wishes of the public. Given the overwhelming margin of public opinion, we have every right to expect that hunting in provincial parks will be ended immediately, and that logging activities will be phased out as soon as possible.

Sixteen accidents

Crest collision

A car driven by Terrence Cherry, 33, of Downview collided with a second vehicle, driven by David Pratley, 37, of Toronto on the crest of a hill in Harcourt Park. The mishap took place December 27.

The Cherry car sustained $1200 damage while the Pratley vehicle had damages estimated at $800.

The accident was investigated by Constable Bob Wood.

Hits rock cut

An accident on County Road 1 December 27 resulted in $4000 damage to the vehicle driven by Angelo Iannace, 45, of Toronto. The driver was travelling west when he lost control of the vehicle and it entered the south ditch hitting the rock cut and rolling over.

The incident was investigated by Constable Brian Dunham.

Roll on

It was simply a case of an accident which didn't want to stop happening.

George R. Waite, 45, of Toronto was travelling south on Highland Road December 28 when he lost control of his vehicle after hitting a snowbank. The car came to rest at the top of the snowbank and after an investigation the driver left the car with the intention of returning the next day. However, when he came back to the location he found that his car had decided to follow through, and rolled down the other side of the snowbank.

Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $3000.

The investigating officer was Constable Dennis Potter.

Hidden stump

A stump, hidden from view by the snow, caused $1400 damage to a snowmobile driven by Douglas Robb, 21, of Markham. The incident occurred on private property in Havelock Township December 29.

Constable Boyd Jarvis investigated the mishap.

Collision

A total of $3000 damage was done when two vehicles collided on County Road 6 December 29.

Douglas Burns, 22, of Unionville was the driver of one vehicle while Robert Hertel was behind the wheel of a 1977 model pick-up. Both drivers were travelling east when Burns attempted to pass the Hertel vehicle. With Burns in the left lane, Hertel attempted a left turn into a private driveway and struck the other car.

Hertel has been charged with failing to wear a seat belt.

The accident was investigated by Constable Barry Connelly.

Number one

The first accident of the new year was investigated by Minden OPP at 10 a.m. January 1.

Roger Maisonneuve, 22, of Lasalle, Quebec was travelling west on Kashagawigamog Lake Road when he lost control of the vehicle on a curve and entered a south ditch. The car, which sustained $1500 damage, struck a tree.

The mishap was investigated by Constable Dennis Potter.

Hit on curve

Alvin Cowen, 52, of Haliburton and Ralph Hutchinson, 23, of Eagle Lake were the two drivers involved in a collision January 1 on the Green Lake Road. Cowen was travelling east while Hutchinson was westbound when the vehicles collided on a curve. Damage to the Cowen vehicle was estimated at $1000 while the Hutchinson pick-up truck sustained $800 damage.

Constable Dennis Potter investigated.

And finally

Close to $4000 damage was done to two vehicles involved in an accident January 2 on County Road 2.

John W. Van-Oirschot, 38, of Fort Erie was travelling east when his vehicle was in collision with another travelling west driven by Cleveland Stamp, 42, of Minden. The collision occurred on a downhill curve in the road.

Damage to the Van-Oirschot vehicle was estimated at $1000 damage while the Stamp dump truck sustained $2800 damage.

Constable Mike Legge investigated the accident.

With the puck safely tucked in the net, Bob Sisson raises his stick after scoring on the Rockcliffe Hotel goalie. Sisson led his Home Hardware team to a 9-6 victory over Rockcliffe with a hat trick. In the second game Monday night Halls Insurance defeated Hartwick Construction 10-3.

Cobden captures 'A' division - Omemee takes 'B' in Rotary Pee Wee tourney

The Cobden Muskrats captured both their division championship and top tournament honours during the Minden Rotary International Hockey Tournament played this past weekend at the arena. The Cobden team defeated the winner of the 'B' division, Omemee 7-0 to take the overall honours.

The two day event drew 11 teams to the local arena and provided an exciting weekend of hockey for players and fans.

Minden, playing in the B division, advanced to the semi-finals but were defeated 3-0 at the hands of Powassan. The local team had opened the tournament on a down note with a 4-0 loss at the hands of Little Britain. However, later in the day they battled to a respectable 6-0 shut-out of a second team from Cobden. The tournament rules stated that teams had to be defeated twice before being eliminated from play.

Glenn Hall and Tom MacLeod both netted a pair for Minden in the second contest with singles going to John Wells and Daryl Ward. Assists in the goal scoring effort went to Gord Wood and Daryl Ward each with a pair and singles to David Schell, John Wells, John Ballantyne and Glenn Hall.

Don't tell me what you will do
When you have time to spare;
Tell me what you did today
To ease a load of care.
Don't tell me the dreams you have
Of conquests yet afar;
Don't say what you hope to be,
Just show me what you are."
Grenville Kleiser

I'd like to be the sort of friend that you have been to me,
I'd like to be the help that you are always glad to be;
I'd like to mean as much to you, each minute of the day
As you have meant, good friend of mine, to me along the way.
I'm wishing at this special time that I could but repay
A portion of the gladness that you've stewn along my way,
If I could have a single wish, this only would it be —
I'd like to be the sort of friend that you have been to me.

Surely has been a cold time, remember one other holiday week it was really cold, when the Recreation Club of St. Paul's had a New Year's dance in their hall. Anyone remember that? Still lots of snow, check the ice on the lakes that it is safe, before going on it. Cheerio until next time.

Kinmount Klippings

by Pat Shorter

Glad to see we all had such good weather for the holidays.

Hope everyone had a good time. The New Year has got to be better...think happy!

Kinmount seems to have gone into a deep sleep with the return of the cold weather, but as the sun gets warmer, people get brave and venture into town.

Lines from Lutterworth

Hi! Well we've started another year. Made any resolutions? Broken them yet? I didn't make any this year, by the time spring gets here I've forgotten what they were, so forget it.

We went to Shelburne, to be with the family for New Year's. We came home Friday. What a day! They closed the roads behind us. There were too many fender benders to count. Luckily no one could travel fast enough to do too much damage.

Congratulations to Phyllis and Doug Kernohan on the safe arrival of their son, on New Year's Eve.

Hint of the Week

Clothes Care: To air out a closet, open doors and let an electric fan blow inside. Do this periodically. Don't jam clothes into a closet, or they won't get enough air and may develop a musty odor.

There's a diference between good sound reasons and reasons that sound good.

Kid's Korner

Well kids, holidays are over, and it's back to school. I hope you had a good time and stayed warm in all this cold weather we are having.

IN MEMORIAM

WALLACE - In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Violet Wallace, who passed away on January 10th, 1979.

Though her smile is gone forever
And her hand we cannot touch
Still we have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much.
Her memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part,
God has her in His keeping,
We have her in our hearts.

Always loved and sadly missed by husband Norman and family.
